BAER'S TO OFFER DECORATING ADVICE

Decorator ... Mrs. Troupe

Mrs. Margaret Troupe, Long Beach, recently joined the staff at Bob Baer's Draperies, 1512 Cravens, as interior decorator and color consultant.

With 30 years decorating experience behind her, Mrs. Troupe will be available to show samples in the home, coordinate color schemes with furniture, bed spreads, slip covers, draperies, etc., and offer suggestions for interior decoration.

30 YEARS OF SERVICE

James Wayt, center, 2850 Onrado, personnel supervisor at the Torrance Works of United States Steel's Columbia-Geneva Steel Division, receives his 30-year service award from Fred Brunner, assistant superintendent of industrial relations, as Don H. Hyde, superintendent of industrial relations, left, looks on.

SummerCamp Planned By Local YMCA

The Torrance YMCA is operating more summer camps than ever before, with three sessions of regular mountain camp for boys 9 to 12; a day camp during the month of July; and three older boy caravans and pack trips to national parks scheduled.

Boys of all ages may call the YMCA at FA 8-1272 for further information about the many points of the trip will be the giant redwoods, Sequoia, King's Canyon, and Yosemite National parks, as well as Bass Lake. by selling peanuts.

Civic Group Discusses Play Areas

The Southwest Park Civic association met recently at the Carl Steele school. Arthur D. Kinane, president, read the Kroeger report and recommendations on park and recreation needs in the Southwest Park area. He stated that a bond issue may possibly come up for vote this summer which, if approved, will provide money for the development of La Romeria Park, availing the children of the area a safe, wholesome place in which to play.

The scene above is one that will be repeated this summer from June 17 to 24, for boys 12 to 15. Twenty-five boys will travel 800 miles through the western portion of the High Si-

Mrs. Schmidt Dies May 9

Mrs. Juliana Schmidt, 69, of 1811 Border ave., died Thursday, May 9. A widow, she is survived by three sons: Frank, Lomita; Steve and John, both from Torrance; three daughters from Torrance, Mrs. Helen Wilson, Miss Marion Schmidt, and Miss Julia Schmidt; seven grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren.

Services were conducted May 11 at the Halverson-Leavell Mortuary chapel with Rev. Robert Colburn officiating. Interment was at the Inglewood Mausoleum.

Robert S. Borden, vice-president of the Home Savings and Loan association, was guest speaker of the evening, and answered many questions regarding payments on homes and related questions.

A social hour followed, and refreshments were served by Dorothy Lottermoser and her committee.

Mary K. Christian, chairman of the adult activities committee, announced the first annual dance to be held on July 20, at the American Legion hall in Torrance. An orchestra will be provided, and tickets will go on sale at the next regular meeting.
